Brochures, postcards, catalogs and other mailings

- · Select press and publicity
- · Sample publications
- · Letters of support

You are not required to upload material in all 7 boxes, though a variety of materials is encouraged in order to illustrate the strengths of your project to the review panel.

In the text box provided for each item, please list the title, year of completion, duration, medium, dimensions, etc. where applicable. Please limit audio and video clips to no more than 2 minutes. (If a sample is longer than two minutes, please indicate start and end times for the clip you would like the panel to review.)

PLEASE NOTE: The online system can accommodate images, text documents, video, and audio in most formats, however there is a 29 MB limit for ALL support materials combined. We recommend that video be uploaded to a site such as Vimeo or Youtube, and links provided in the link boxes below. Links to artist websites can also be submitted as support materials.

If you do not have a PDF converter, this online application system has a Fax to File function (left side bar) that allows you to fax document pages to a designated fax number that will convert them into a PDF. This PDF can be saved to your computer and then must be uploaded to your application. Free PDF conversions are also available online.

If you have trouble uploading media online you may email files to cristina.dichiera@arts.ri.gov or DVDs and CDs can be sent by the deadline date to: Cristina DiChiera, Rhode Island State Council on the Arts, One Capitol Hill, 3rd Floor, Providence, RI 02908

✓ Assurances

1/15/2016

The applicant agrees to abide by all the General Terms and Conditions and Assurances as outlined at http://www.arts.ri.gov/legal, and has reviewed this information prior to submitting this application. By submitting your application you are agreeing to abide by all of these federal and state terms and conditions if you receive support from RISCA. The applicant understands that all grant applications are considered on a competitive basis. No applicant is guaranteed funding at any level, even if all basic criteria have been met. Prior funding does not guarantee support in current or future years. The applicant understands that all RISCA grant award programs are contingent upon the availability of funds from the General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

The applicant will assure that it and any organization assisted by it will comply with Titles I - IV of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (PL 101-336), as amended, Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq., PL 88-352) as amended, Sections 503 & 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 794), Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972 (PL 92-261), Rhode Island Executive Order #19, 1977, and where applicable, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), to the end that no person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, handicap, or sexual orientation, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity for which the applicant received financial assistance from the Council.

It is understood by the applicant and the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts (RISCA) that RISCA reserves the right to use any text, photographs, audio, or video submitted as part of this application for limited non-commercial educational or promotional use in publications or other media produced, used or contracted by RISCA including, but not limited to: brochures, invitations, newsletters, postcards, websites, etc.

The applicant will certify that the information contained in this application, including all attachments and supporting materials, is true and correct to the best of their knowledge, and that the applicant is an eligible individual as specified in the guidelines.

By checking this box I agree to all of the above:*

I agree to the above Assurances

The deadline for this application is 11:59 PM on April 1. THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS.
